

Helping the Injured:

Out of the clay provided, sculpt your favorite animal.

What would you do if you saw this animal injured on the side of the road?

How do you relate to the injured animal?

How do you need help?

Why do you deserve the help as much as the injured animal?

How have you, or how will you reach out and ask for the help and support you need?